wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, 12 prime movers with field guns, 20 JS tanks and 15 other vehicles.

Additional motor vehicle columns were observed but no details could be ascertained.

- 6. An eastbound troop train was observed at the Rathenow railroad station on 13 March. Five 122 mm. howitzers were seen on the train. On the same day a westbound troop train with twelve tanks, six to eight trucks and seven boxcars with soldiers was observed at the Rathenow railroad station.
- 7. On 9 March, the Loewen Kaserne in Doeberitz was fully occupied by one unit with 1,570 men and a second unit with 1,200 men. Both units fell-in with three flags in the barracks yard and listened to a speech given by a general. Subsequently, the first unit with 30 T-34 tanks, 18 trucks with attached 76 mm AT guns, 18 trucks with 57 mm AT guns and four trucks with 120 mm mortars, and the second unit with 35 JS II and JS III tanks and eight JSU 120 mm SP guns marched to the troop training grounds for salute firing. 3

Comments:

- All of the motor vehicles belonged to the 20th Guards Mechanized Division which probably returned from the Ohrdruf troop training grounds.
- 2. Indications exist that the exercise of the 9th Mechanized Division extended from Cottbus to as far as the area south of Luckenwalde and that the exercise was completed on 28 February.
- 3. The first unit is the 19th Mechanized Regiment and the second the 72nd Guards Heavy Tank and SP Regiment, both of the 1st Mechanized Division.
